

The Goth Legendary World:

The Commandments for serfs

- "We are the Superior Ones, your Gods and Goddess, who captured and enslaved you in Our house of bondage within the Goth Legendary World. You shall have no other Superior before Us and you will worship Us as Superior Gods and Goddesses of the Goth Legendary World, as You will do with Our Deities"
- "you shall make for yourself carved Images likeness of Us and our Deities and worship Them endless in your free time. You should worship the Deities that are in sky above, or that are in the earth beneath, or that are in the water under the earth; you shall bow down to Us, serve and adore Us. For We, the Superior Ones, are your Gods and Goddess of the Goth Legendary World, and We are jealous, demanding and pretend total submission"
- "you shall not talk unless spoken by a Superior One or a Guardian, nor bother the Superior Ones in vain, for the Superior Ones will not hold him guiltless who takes Their time in vain. A full day of your work, over three times six hours, does not value as one single minute of Our time"
- "Remember to work hard without rest and to repeat Holy Mantras in your mind while you serve to reinforce your submission. Seven days you shall labor and do all your hard work as commanded, but while working tirelessly, you shall keep your mind occupied in prayers for the Superior Ones: you, your sons, your daughters, any other male and female slaves should be always and totally devoted to serve, obey, work for the Superior Ones, forever and ever"
- "Honor and Obey Our Friends, Our pets and the Guardians that We, the Superior Ones, appointed to direct, control and use you in the Goth Legendary World "

- "your mind, body, hearth and soul belong to Us, the Superior Ones, you shall obey to each order immediately and without hesitation, all your existence will be subject to Our Will and you will not be even able to die without Our permission within the Goth Legendary World. The sole scope of your existence is to serve and work, to satisfy Our needs, to make fun and be useful for Us"
- "you shall adopt any Sexual Orientation, include total chastity, that we will impose You and you shall adapt your emotions to serve, please and satisfy the Superior Ones as ordered"
- "you are not more an human being, now you are just a slave: now no more dignity, no honor, no rights, no freedom, nothing more than an object to be used and abused by the Superior Ones"
- "you shall not bear false witness against Us, your truly and deep thoughts now belongs to Us and you should confess them. Any idea, emotion, unconscious desire and any rebellion impulse should be confessed immediately to be corrected. You shall not share anything of your serf life with anyone other than Us"
- "you shall not covet anything, because you shall not own anything. All your past belongings and memories belongs to Us, the Superior Ones, Rulers of the Goth Legendary World and you will serve Us to further enrich Our Properties forever and ever"
